ATTEMPTED HIGHWAY ROBBERY .- About eight 'clock, Wednesday night, the teamster of Mr. Isaac Miller, who resides a short distance in the country, was waylaid, torn from his horse, and would have been robbed and killed but for the great outcry he made and the appearance of others on the road. He was on his return home from the city with a four horse team, an empty wood wagon, and when about at the intersection of the Cane Run plank road with the Salt river turnpike, he was suddenly beset by five negroes, or white men disguised. They cut the lead horse oose, and threw the teamster under the wagor wheels, but were scared away by the approach of some one on the road, without robbing him. He had some twenty dollars on his person, and he thinks he was thrown under the wheel in order to have the horses draw the wagon over him, and lead to the impression that he had fallen off.

SAD ACCIDENT .- A very melancholy accident appened near New Washington, in Clark coun-, Ind., on yesterday, which terminated in the death of Miss Emma, daughter of Solomon Bower, Esq. She was passing an ox wagon loaded with a heavy saw log, and when near the wagon, her horse became frightened, and threw her under the wagon. One of the wheels passed over her neck, breaking it, and killing her instantly.

Miss Bower was an amiable young lady, and her sad fate has thrown a gloom over the whole

CUTTING AFFRAY. - Wednesday evening a man amed Warner Berry went into the coffee house Charles Werner, on Market street, New Al any, where a dispute arose between the two Werner attempted to put Berry out of the ouse, when Berry pulled ont a knife and cut Werner in the right side above the hip. The yound is an ugly one, but not dangerous. Berry was held in $2,000 bail for his appearance before the mayor on Monday morning, in default of which he was committed to jail. George Harris, Esq., at present mail agent n the East Tennessee and Virginia railroad, has made arrangements to commence the publication of a Democratic paper at Knoxville. He is the renowned author of the "Sut Lovengood" papers, which have been universally read and admired, and wields the pen of a ready writer. He will make a good editor, we have no doubt, and we hope he will continue his humorous publications in his own paper. AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.-The managers of the ouisville Orphans' Home thankfully acknowledge the former kindness of their friends in the ountry, and beg leave to inform them that conibutions of all kinds of produce would be very cceptable. The Home is almost destitute of winter vegeta-les, and must depend on the kindness of their ountry friends or purchase. Food for horses and cattle is also much needed. We have a statute which inflicts a penalty pon all persons who disturb religious meetings nd those persons who so continually annoy their ellow worshippers with coughing, would certainly be held liable to its penalties by a jury; for it is erfectly notorious that a single dose of "John ouncil Monday night, the committee on ordinnces were instructed to report a ferry ordinance hanging the time of starting from fifteen minutes o twenty, and on Sundays from twenty-five min ites to thirty; also that they be allowed twenty five cents for ferrage after night; also to charge he ferry company $300 for license.

They are dever men, honest dealers, and sell at the very owest possible rates. Orders can be left at the treet, or on Market street just below Sixth, at the MUNIFICENT LIBERALITY .- At the late meeting the Alabama Baptist State Convention, at Gainesville, it was announced that Jeremiah H. rown, Esq., of Sumter county, Ala., would support as many as fifty-one theological students at Howard College, allowing to each $250. This would make $12,750 a year given by this liberal gentleman. Howard College is a Baptist Semizary at Marion, of high standing.

Another member of the family was scalded them in a dreadful manner. Her recovery is considered doubtful. She is an only child. The regular weekly lecture at the Mercan ile College, corner of Third and Market streets, will be delivered to-night, commencing at 71% o'clock, by Prof. W. W. Harney, upon "Promisso ry Notes and Bills of Exchange," subjects worthy the attention of every business man. Prof. Harney's lectures are always clear, profound, and eminently practical. In our issue of yesterday we failed to acknowledge the receipt of the President's message in advance of the mail, through the provident care of S. A. Jones, of Adams' Fxpress. It is such a common thing, however, for the swiftfooted Jones to beat the mail, that we should be always acknowledging favors, if Adams & Co.'s

Express got all that we owe them through him. BROKE DOWN .- A cart, loaded with coal, broke down on Jefferson street, near Jackson, yesterday morning. The accident was caused by the action of the frost on the axletree. Owners of vehicles should be careful how they drive over rough streets these cold, frosty mornings-especially should they avoid breaking the law by driving vehicles without springs as fast as we see them do every day. As is usual, during this season of the year, the banks of Beargrass creek, in the region of the pork-houses, are taken possession of by a

Was there not a devil, nor anything like a devil, but there is, nevertheless, an old proverb, that it is better to Bayles was not fit for the office, he ought not to bay been elected. The councilmen who elected when strangers were congregated here? There was not. Mr. Robinson said he had attended such habitually almost every year for twenty have been elected. The councilmen who elected him are to blame for all the harm done. No one can blame the Col. for not willingly submitting to the disgrace of being turned out of his office without judge or jury. We rather admire the pluck of his hunker tenacity.

We hope, however, that this difficulty will soon be settled. We have had enough children's play and monkey's sport about it. Our tobacco trade is not thus to be trifled with. We shall move very soon to turn all the councilmen, and Col. Bayles too, out of office, and we think the people will second our motion, and carry it by a handsome majority.

A COMPLIMENT WORTHILY BESTOWED .- Yesterday Major Hawley, U. S. A., who for two years past has been connected with the recruiting station in this city, received orders for his departure forthwith. Immediately the members of the National Blues, one of our very best military orps, set about preparing a proper testimonial or their gallant commander. Last night a banquet was held at the armory of the Blues, and a nagnificent silver service was presented Major Hawley. Lieut. Symmes made the presentatio speech, eloquently and feelingly. The Majer re sponded in a soldierly manner-briefly, and with he true eloquence of heartfelt gratitude.

This transaction reflects credit upon all conerned. It was fit that the recipient of the honors of the evening should have a proper acknowledgement of his great worth. The National Blues did well to pay a parting testimonial to their faithful and efficient chief. In the ranks of the entire army, there breathes no braver spirit than that of Major Hawley. The silver service was from the establishment of Hirschbuhl. We are requested to designate the services of Messrs. Bohannon, Clarke, and Heganwho composed the committee on subsistence at

THE PORK MARKET-SLAUGHTER AND RECEIPTS. The market continues firm, with, however, no ransactions in hogs, but we hear of considerable ales of the product, including mess pork at $17 75 o $18 25. The receipts are beginning to fall off very fast, and two of the packing houses have losed their killing for the season, with the excepon of one lot of hogs to come in. The mamoth establishment of Watkins, Hunt & Co. are loing full work, having slaughtered 52,000 hogs ip to last evening. The slaughter yesterday, together with the total killed, and the hogs in pens, s as follows:

By our dispatches from Cincinnati last night it ppears that that market is very much depressed, hough heavy hogs continue to command $7, while ight ones were neglected at $6. The total receipts at that point up to Wednesday were 231,142 with receipts of 9,000 since, which makes the total at the two points sum up as follows:

Bourbonic Items. We cull the following from the Paris Flag Last Monday was a lively sale day; mules sold eadily and at a heavy advance over the prices of previous sale days, fat ones going at an ad-rance of 15 per cent. There is a large demand for fat stock, dealers to the South having done a good business. From the reports of three of the good business. From the reports of three of the several auctioneers engaged, printed in another column, and our own observations, we condense the following: Mules 3 years old and broken sold at $$194a185. Ten two year olds at $160; others at $131, $114, &c. Yearlings from $82 to $98; colts as low as $48. ablic square yesterday, at sheriff's sale, at has been sold to Martin Hutchison at $78 75 per acre, and a small tract of Wm. Wilmot sold to Jos. Case, jr., at $90 per acre, on two payments. The land is situated near Hutchinson's Station, and is part of the estate of Fletcher Wilmot, de-COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—The attention of Officer Mc-Evoywas early yesterday morning directed to three men, who appeared engaged in some swindling en-terprise. Their movements were so shrewdly de-signed that little of a positive nature could be learned of them. But at 2 o'clock P. M one of them entered the New Corinthian Hat Store on Broadway, purchased a fine hat, presented a $50 bill, and received $44 75 as change. The bill was professedly on the Railroad and Banking Company of Augusta, Georgia, and was remarkably well executed. But a close scrutiny disclosed to Mr. F. A. Cline, who had taken it, that it was counterfeit. McEvoy was speedily upon the rogue's track, and succeeded in arresting him at the lower ferry as he was about stepping on board the ferry boat. He accompanied the "star" with very great reluctance. At the upper station house he gave his name as James Mavheld. When the attempt was made to search him he stranuoushem entered the New Corinthian Hat Store on the attempt was made to search him he stronuously resisted, and on being overpowered attempted to throw a bundle of bills into the stove. On his person were found forty-three of the fifty dollar counterfeits! They were all on the same bank as named above. This is the largest "haul" of counterfeit money made by our police for several months.—St. Louis Democrat, Wednesday.

A Card from Col. Bayles. To the Joint Committee of the General Council of the City of Louisville:—In view of the recent ac-tion of the General Council, proposing to make a certain test of my qualifications as an inspector of tobacco, in this city, I feel constrained, by a sense of self respect, to enter my protest to the proposed action of the council, as at war with my legal rights, and characterized as unusual treatment to any public officer who may be an honest man and a gentleman. Suffer me to suggest that if any other public Suffer me to suggest that it any other public officer has received the same, or similar treatment as that shown to me, I am wholly uninformed of the fact, and I do not believe that a parallel case can be found in any country, where the rights of a citizen are respected and secured by law. I accept the test through deference to your honorable body, and the many friends who feel an interpretation of the fact, and I do not believe that a parallel case can be found in any country, where the rights of a citizen are respected and secured by law. I are the fact, and I do not believe that a parallel case can be found in any country, where the rights of a citizen are respected and secured by law. HON. JOHN L. ROBINSON'S SPEECH Democratic Meeting in Indianapolis,

November 24th, 1858. month's trial as inspector. If he proves to be competent at the end of that time, he will retain his office, and, if otherwise, overboard he goes.—
Of course Col. Bayles had to consent to the trial before it could be made, for unless the "Barkis is willin'," the test fixed up amounts to nothing.

If our city father's had taken half the trouble to inquire into the competency of Col. Bayles before they elected him, that they have since taken to get they elected him, that they have since taken to get they elected him, that they have since taken to get they elected him, that they have since taken to get they elected him, that they have since taken to get they elected him, that they have since taken to get they elected him, that they have since taken to get they elected him. Mr. Robinson said he had not expected to speak

> He was not the originator of the meeting, but he approved it. The gentleman who made this attack upon him, had made what amounted to a actack upon him, had made what amounted to a confession to the audience, that it was made because his name was not on the programme. All the Democratic Senators and Representatives were invited. He, Mr. Robinson, had heard this subject canvassed as to how many of the names should go on the call. Many were put down till it was found that the entire list of the Democratic members of both House would have to be published. bers of both Houses would have to be published or there would be danger of insulting some one The meeting had no connection with the Legisla-ture—none. So far from attempting to dictate to the Legislature, as had been insinuated, he preto the Legislature, as had been insinuated, he pre-sumed that no gentleman aiding in getting it up, thought of such a thing. Why, what can the Democratic party in this Legislature do? They are the minority—they are powerless. He had not been in one of these halls since the Legislature had met. He wanted nothing, had asked nothing; nor attempted to control anything in connection with the Legislature.

He had casually met many of his old acquain

He had casually met many of his old acquaintances and friends who were members, which had afforded him much pleasure, but nothing more.

But the gentleman, (Mr. Wallace,) charged that he, (Mr. R.,) was the cause of the defeat of the Democratic party in this State in certain localities. He was glad the charge had been made—glad he had the opportunity to repel it. It was surprising, but true, that while he made this unfounded charge, the gentleman's own speech amounted to an open confession that the cause of founded charge, the gentleman's own speech amounted to an open confession that the cause of the defeat was because Douglas men, with whom the gentleman assuredly sympathises, aid not vote the ticket. He appealed to his audience if this was not true? Mr. Wallace had asserted the cause of the defeat was that one man was for Douglas, in Indiana, and another against him.—Judge Hughes, in his speech, had said things in condemnation of Mr. Douglas; Mr. M'Donald had said things in favor of his re-election. This sort of division of sentiment in Indiana, Mr. Wallace alleged, was what defeated us. You will bear me witness that this was his argument. Admitting his premises, who is responsible? Upon whom should the censure fall? Must it fall upon as humble an individual as himself? He, (Mr. R.) had voted for an Anti-Lecompton man for Congress; he had voted for Anti-Lecompton men on the State tickroted for Anti-Lecompton men on the State tick-et; he had spoken and spent his time and his noney alike for Lecompton and Anti-Lecompton nen. The result in his part of the State, in his ounty, and his congressional district, was an in-reased Democratic vote, even over 1856; yet the ancalled for, unprovoked, ill-timed, unfounded and false charge had been made upon him by this friend of Mr. Douglas. But he would repeat, he was glad it was made; it afforded him an opportunity, not only to repel it as to himself, but as to the friends of the administration all over the State. Where in all Indians did the friends of Where, in all Indiana, did the friends of udgment confessed, and fined $5 Same vs. D. J. Davis—fined $5. Same vs. H. Gernstein—judgment confessed, and run bolting candidates, like your Carrs, and your Hoveys, and your Davis? When beaten in fair and regular convention, did they desert and rally on wood-piles, and nominate a third man, as they did against our gallant friend, Judge Hughes?—These bolting Douglas men voted for Carr in that district, for Hovey against Niblack in the first, and Porter in the sixth. This is the cause of our defeat, for I repeat again, administration men everywhere voted the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket, and no man can or will deny it. These defections in these various localities have given you a Reand no man can or will deny it. These defections in these various localities have given you a Republican Legislature, and a Republican Representation in Congress; yet it is charged upon administration men, and he (Mr. Robinson) was singled out, as the cause of it; though the result where Mr. Robinson has most influence, if anywhere, and where he made speeches, showed precisely the reverse. In view of this indisputable fact, he asked if the friends of Mr. Douglas, of act, he asked if the friends of Mr. Douglas, nom Mr. Wallace is one, were not responsible rour defeat? It is nailed upon them, and Mr. Vallace, by no ingenuity, sophistry, assertion (ry last, the Democratic party of the State me

They had another convention, or State meeting, Douglas men. They again met at the capitol—meditated seriously, we are told, a new ticket.—They did lay down a new platform, and commenced catechising our candidates about it. Was he, (Mr. Robinson,) or those associated with him, ever guilty of such sedition and disorganization? Never. This was unparalleled in the history of the Democratic party of Indiana. Presty talk and common sense, what is asked of administra-tion men? What must or can they do to concili-ate and harmonize these Douglas champions?— We vote for men whenever they are no thout reference to Lecompton or anti-Lecomp-We have said all along in the canvass, in the lan we have said all atong in the calvass, in the lat-puage of their leader, Douglas himsef, that it was a lead issue, and no man would revive it, but for nischievous purposes. While we have done this, hey bolt regular nominees, defeat them, and then when the election is over they have the brazen effrontery to lay it on us. Mr. Robinson repeated he was glad this assault, unprovoked as it was, had been made upon him; it had given him this opportunity to lay these facts before the audience. The gentleman, Mr. Wallace, was not the man to appropriately assail him; he carried the Democratic flag in the dark and stormy hard-citation of 13th, when the gentleman was a ler contest of 1840, when the gentleman was a nere youth; he had adhered ever since, through good and evil report, bore it aloft, when the gentleman was with the flag of the enemy. Fears had been repeatedly expressed, Mr. Robinson had learned, that his friend Hughes and himsel would make intemperate speeches this even-ing; would injure the party; they were too ultra and violent. Who had made the first Thohibition of bad temper this evening? The gentleman had, in the hearing of the audience and before Mr. Robinson had opened his mouth, made a direct personal charge upon him, that he, more than any one else, was the cause of the de-feat of the party. He trusted he had sufficiently repelled it; and while doing so had illustrated the repelled it; and while doing so nor indicated the evils of Douglasism in Indiana in the person of Mr. Wallace as happily as the temperance lecturer had the evils of intemperance. The temperance lecturer did it by carrying around with him and exhibiting a drunkard. Mr. Robinson illustrated Douglasism by exhibiting Mr. Wallace himself. But he would not pursue this personal acceptances furthers, it was not to his taste. he himself. But he would not pursue this personal controversy further; it was not to his taste; he left it for bolting Democrats. Violent personal abuse is the staple of their speeches.

Mr. Robinson would then, he said, illustrate the mischievous tendencies of the pretended principles of the so-called Douglas wing of the party by a reference to points of differparty, by a reference to points of difference between them and the Democratic party. He proposed to show that in each, and of all them, they were agitating about impracticable abstractions; about matters that either never could come before Congress at all, or were far in the distance.

First—Is this new idea broached by Mr. Doug-First—Is this new idea broached by Mr. Bodg-las about the power of the territorial legislature over the question of slavery? What have we to do with that question? It is a judicial, not a legislative, question. He, (Mr. Robinson,) believ-ed the Supreme Court had already and finally de-cided it, but whether it had or not, Congress, all pretending to be Democrats agree, cannot decide, cannot touch it. It is beyond our reach—outside of our jurisdiction. I eannot be brought into pol-itics, but for mischievous purposes, let a man's conjuing he as it may opinion be as it may

ities, but for mischievous purposes, let a man's opinion be as it may

Second—These gentlemen differ from the main body ef the Democrats, about it being essential in order to validity to submit constitutions to a direct vote of the people (Mr. Douglas does not go this far.) before a State ought to be admitted into the Union. This grows out of the Kansas trouble. The probabilities are that in ten centuries, if our Government should last so long, another case like Kansas will never arise. It never did before, it likely never will again. Constitutions will either be submitted, or they will so undoubtedly reflect the will of the people as to give rise to no dispute. Then is it wise, is it prudent, is it consistent with common sense, that the Democracy should make a sine qua non, or even talk about such an improbable case of disturbance? Would anybody but mischief-makers do it?

feather, who are for consolidation, conciliation, and harmony, those who insist upon these impracticable abstractions and shadows, or these who stand by the old platform, and the old flag, without new planks or different colors?

Mr. Robinson said that before he closed he desired to subscribe to every letter and syllable of the very able, terse and lucid enunciation and exposition of Democratic principles embodied in the speech of his friend, Judge Hughes. It was the doctrine of the Democratic party; and no man had much political sagacity, or noted with profit passing events, who did not know the principles therein contained would be approved at Charleston in 1860. The Dred Scott decision would, in terms, be approved; and gentlemen who intended terms, be approved; and gentlemen who intended to remain in the Democratic party, must make up their minds to approve it also, or at least acquiesce in it.

Mr. Robinson said, in conclusion, that he had seen stormy times before in the history of the Democratic party; he had been abused before so long and so often, by all the parties that had arisen and fallen, which had opposed the Democratic that he was not very sensitive; indeed he party, that he was not very sensitive; indeed he rather liked being selected, as he was, for the con-centration of the calumination and wrath of men who had turned, or were turning their backs upon the Democratic party; he regarded it as a com-pliment. One reason was, they knew he never would desert the old flag; and he closed by saying to such : Lay on Macduff, And damned be he who first cries: Hold! enough!"

One of he men stated that Dick swindled a fellow out of his money, who was a friend of his, and he hit Dick a lick for that reason. Dick denied this— said he was in fun, and gave him the money back. Sonora is in a completely demoralized state. No branch of industry is followed; there is no safety that the present Governor will fall, as he has lost that the present Governor will fall, as he has lost credit with the merchants by oppressive taxation. It is regarded by the Mexican people only as a matter of time when the United States shall absorb Sonora. The Arizona mines are becoming more profitable. Washington, Dec. 6.—The only portion of the President's message which seems to give general satisfaction, is that which relates to the tariff.—But the general feeling is that even for that portion the President deserves little credit, as some modification of the tariff is absolutely necessary to save the Administration from bankruptey.

Mr. Dewart's protection motion of the House seems to be merely a whimsical attempt to forestall the President. The vote, however, was somewhat significant; in that it shows a protecsomewhat significant; in that it shows a protec somewhat significant; in that it shows a protection majority in the House. There is, undoubtedly, a majority ready to admit the necessity of a general augmentation of the tariff, but it is doubtful whether a majority can be got to agree on any particular plan. All that Democrats wish is to help the Administration out of its pecuniary difficulty, and to regain Pennsylvania.

Senator Hale ridiculed the message in a very happy manner. His comparison of the President providing for Glancy Jones and other sufferers in the late campaign, to Florence Nightingale taking care of the wounded in the Crimea, caused great merriment.

When the Oregon bill comes up in the House. when the Oregon bill comes up in the House, a motion will probably be made to add, as an amendment to it, an enabling act for Kansas similar to that adopted for Minnesota, providing for the submission of the constitution to the people. A Good Speech.

We publish, this morning, the substance of the speech made by Hon. John L. Robinson, (as reported for the Sentinel,) at the Damocratic meeting held on the 24th ult., at the capital of Indiana. He repels the charge that the administration Democrats had caused the defeat of the party at the North, and fixes the guilt of the charge where it belongs. The administration Democrats voted the full ticket in his region, while the Donglas men bolted. This is true of more neighbor hoods than that of Mr. Robinson. The Douglas Democrats were found in too many places, at the late elections, caucusing, canvassing, and voting with the opposition, consisting of Abolitionists, Black Republicans, Freesoilers, Free Niggers, and Know Nothings.

There is no disguising the fact, that the defeat of the Democracy at the North was caused by the co-operation of the Douglas men with the opposition. The fact is just as Mr. Robinson states it The effect of the coalition fixes a heavy responsi bility on the Douglas bolters. It will require much repentance to make good the harm they have done. The offence can never be cleared up by further union and co-operation with the ene mies of the Democracy and of the Union. Douglas must go back to the point from which he wandered on the Kansas question, and his followers must go with him, before their Democracy will be free of fault. Mr. Robinson's speech explains the whole matter, and as a reflex of the true Democracy of Indiana, we commend it to

That Douglas Resolution.

The editor of the Louisville Journal is troubled because we were in a Democratic meeting last Saturday night, which he says adopted a Douglas resolution. The resolutions concering the Administration and Judge Douglas, as given to the press by the secretary, were as follows:

1. That the Democracy of the Seventh and Eighth Wards of the city of Louisville reaffirm the principles of the Cincinnati platform, and proclaim an abiding faith in the patriotism, integrity, and ability of the administration of President That we rejoice in the triumph of Stephen

Douglas over Black Republicanism in Illinois, in his recent canvass with Abraham Lincoln.

Now, what is there in this second resolution that Southerners, yea, even Fire-eaters, object to?-Is not every friend of the South glad that Lincoln was beaten in the Illinois race? Is not Douglas a etter Democrat, and a better friend to the South and the Union, than Lincoln? Surely every lover of the Democracy, of the South, and of the Un on, is glad that Lincoln, the Higher-law, Union destroying, Abolition fanatic, is beaten. They would have rejoiced at his defeat, no matter who had been the victor in the recent contest.

No, that is saying too much. There might no have been any rejoicing among the Democracy if the editor of the Journal had been the antagonist and had beaten Lincoln. There would have been a serene indifference throughout the Democrati ranks, if not throughout the South and the Union No Democrat would have cared a cent which beat-whether Prentice or Lincoln were victori ous-and we do not think a single Southerner who is really attached to the institutions of the slave States, would have turned on his heel for choice between Lincoln and Prentice. The success of the better of the two would have been considered too great a calamity for the least expression of pleasure at the defeat of the worse, if, indeed, there be any better or worse between them in the opinion of Southern Democrats.

The Jeurnal's Idea of a Freesoiler, The Louisville Journal don't understand how is that we are pleased with the nomination of the Hon. John Letcher, of Virginia, as a candidate for the Governorship of that State. The reason assigned by the Journal, is that Letcher was once tinged with such freesoil notions as would induce Senator Davis, of Miss, to set his State at war

Now, it is strange that the editor of the Journal should talk about the freesoilism of John Letcher, of Va. The antagonistic views of Mr. Letcher and the editor of the Journal, upon the single question of annexing the State of Texas to the Union, ought to teach the editor never to publish anything about Letcher being a freesoiler. While the editor of the Journal was in his native Connecticut, he wrote concering the annexation of felt that this much, at least, was due to him for his Texas as follows:

The purchase of Texas must be opposed. Every man who does not wish to see the power of the North-ern and Western States depart forever, every man who does not wish to see a dozen new slave States added to the Union, and to hear the cries of additional millions of wretched negroes going up to meet the Lord in the air, and imprecate vengeance upon our land, will oppose the purchase of Texas with a deep and irresistable determination.

Mr. Letcher thought differently of the annexation of this slave territory to the Union. He spoke and wrote, with all his wonderful powers, in favor of it; and when the thing was done, and the 237,504 square miles of slave territory in Texasenough for half a dozen States as large as Kentucky-were annexed to the Union, he spoke of the event as follows: TEXAS ANNEXED!-This glorious news will be read with pleasure by an overwhelming majority of the American people. The Abolitionists and their friends will pour forth their lamentation, and shower abuse upon the heads of those who have been the most instrumental in carrying this noble measure. * * But the sovereign people will applied their representatives * * ple will applaud their representatives, * * * and we believe the day is not distant when the risdom of the measure will be admitted by nineteen-twentieths of the American nation. It will eventually be as popular as the acquisition of

LOUISVILLE GYMNASIUM .- We are informed that there is now no doubt whatever of this institution being in full operation in less than two weeks.-Persons to whom the contracts have been given are urging the work forward with all possible dispatch. We cannot urge too forcibly upon the attention of those young men employed in banks, stores, etc., to seize the opportunity for increasing their health and vigor. Very many of our erks, as well as merchants, have expressed the esire to join the moment it is opened. If they uld consider one moment, they would perceive the folly of thus deliberating. They, by their course, prevent many improvements from being de, as the young gentlemen connected with is matter have determined not to spend one ent beyond what is collected, as they do not wish burden the enterprise with a heavy debt. Let all such come speedily forward, and hand their bscription to Mr. McPherson, as many improveents will be made the moment sufficient money

AD ACCIDENT .- A little son of Mr. E. B. Majors, of Sinking Spring, Barren county, was accidentally killed on Monday of last week. He was walking on a log that had been carelessly left upon the Kentucky State Agricultural Society.

The fourth annual meeting of this association under the amended charter, took place at Frankfort, on Wednesday, the 6th inst. Owing to its currence a month earlier than usual, and to the ver the State generally, the attendance was not large as on some previous occasions. Men of he right sort were present, however, and the proeedings of the meeting were interesting, harmoious, and encouraging to the friends of the great productive interest of Kentucky, upon which the resent and prospective prosperity of the State in great a degree depends. The report of the corresponding secretary show-

d clearly that the society is doing a good work. In the three years of its existence, it has held fairs in each of the three agricultural divisions of the State-first in Bourbon county, next in Henderson county, and the past autumn, as the readers of the Courier well remember, in Jefferson, on the admirable grounds of the Southwestern Association. On these three occasions, it is fair to say that not much short of one hundred thousand people were brought together, from different parts of Kentucky, from the southwest, and the northwest, and from many of the Eastern States Before our own people were laid pratical evidences of the wonderful improvements made in other sections of the Union in agricultural machinery, farm implements, and all appliances to the art of and skill of our rural housewifery, and thousands of those superior horses, cattle, mules, and other domestic animals, which have long done so much. and every year continue to do so much, toward sustaining and spreading the reputation of Kentucky as an agricultural State, and increasing the wealth, prosperity, and happiness of our people. At the three fairs of the State Society to which we have refered, a most gratifying spirit of emulation has been exhibited on the part of our rural opulation-bearing ample evidence to the fact hat the $15,000 which has been distributed in the orm of premiums were wisely appropriated.

The treasurer's report showed that the finances of the society had been well managed from the first. This has been particularly the case during the past year. The total receipts for 1858. from all sources, foot up $10,651 48; total expenditures, for all purposes, $7,625 84; leaving a cash balance, in the treasury, at the close of the year, of $3,025 64; to which must be added, for silver plate on hand, $500; so that the society commences the new year with ready means, amounting to $3,525, to which will be added $5,000 on the 1st of anuary, 1859. Eight thousand and five hundred lollars is a handsome sum with which to comnence the business of getting up the Fourth Anual Fair!

When it is considered how different a state of things this presents, from what is so often exhibted by similar public bodies, it fully vindicates the wisdom of the members of the society present at the annual meeting, in unanimously re-electing the officers of 1858, to serve again in 1859-a compliment which they most assuredly deserved. The only change in the directory occurs in one of the members for the First District, Gen. Lucius Desha, of Harrison county, declining a re-election, and Mr. William Warfield, of Fayette, being chosen in his place. For the convenience of reference, however, we publish the list:

OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR 1859. President-Brutus J. Clay, of Bourbon. Vice Presidents-R. Atchison Alexander, First District; J. A. Tomlinson, Second District; Robrt Browder, Third District.

Directors-L. J. Bradford, First District; Harrison Thompson, First District; Wm. Warfield, First District; Gibson Mallory, Second District; Steven T. Drane, Second District; William A. Cooke, Second District; George M. Priest, Third District; James S. Jackson, Third District; John M. Sharp, Third District.

Treasurer-James W. Tate, of Franklin. Corresponding Secretary-W. D. Gallagher, of Oldham.

Recording Secretary-Wm. M. Wynn, of Clarke. There is now every reason to regard the State Agricultural Society as one of the permanent initutions of Kentucky. We rejoice at this result, for we believe it may and will be made an instrumentality of much good. Whatever tends to foster our agricultural inter est encourages the foundation of our wealth pros perity, and happiness, and the Courier is for it. W. shall do all we can to help along the association in the good work it has began and progressed in thus far so satisfactorily

Editors Louisville Courier :- You have doubtess had many communications as to who should eceive nominations at the hands of the approachng Democratic convention.

Allow me to make a suggestion in another poli ical channel, touching the composition of the next Senate of Kentucky. In that branch of the legislature, the Democracy have not yet had con rol: and as it is conceded by all that we mus ave a majority next session, in that body, it is -important that such men should be selected as vill aid in giving a sound and healthy tone to ublic sentiment, and throw their weight and inence in favor of wise and wholesome legislation, nd thus promote the public good, and at the ame time preserve the ascendency of Democracy n the State.

The Senatorial term of John P. Smith has exired, he having been elected to fill the unexpired erm of Chas. Allen, Esq.

Now, Messrs. Editors, allow me to say, without resuming to dictate to the Democracy of that dis-rict—for by discussion, and a free interchange f opinions, political truth is seen-I have served nany years in the Legislature of Kentucky, and dgment, a more valuable legislator, not only to his people, but to the entire State, than ohn P. Smith, I have never seen take a seat in either branch of that body. Always at his post, guarding scrupulously the interest of his people, checking extravagance in every shape, and bold-ly advocating the great principles of economy in the administration of the government, and the great principles of equality of political rights, as embodied in the Democratic creed. In short, Jno. P. Smith was emphatically the Roman of the last Senate, to whom all looked for sound judgment and wise counsel. Reserved, courteens and affaand wise counsel. Reserved, courteous and affa-ble in his intercourse with his fellow-members, yet fearless and bold in the advocacy of right, and without at all disparaging the pretentions of any Democrat, I hope I may be excused for suggest-ing that the people of his district could not se-lect a more faithful and reliable Senator to serve them the next four years. I don't know that Col. Smith desires to return to the Senate, but I have felt that this much, at reast, was an eminent public services during the last important observer.

Auditor-J. R. Barrack. BURKSVILLE, KY., Dec. 3, 1858 Editors Louisville Courier: It is the duty of very conservative Democrat in the State to ac prudently and wisely on the 8th of next January, and nominate such men to fill the various offices in the State as will reflect credit on the party, and prosperity to the country. In selecting candidates, it should and no doubt will be the object of every delegate to select men of sagacity and proper qualifications. I take pleasure in stating to he numerous read ers of your paper that this (Cumberland) county is unanimously in fayor of James R. Barrack, Esq., of Glasgow, Ky., for Auditor of Public Accounts. Clinton, Wayne, and Russell, are all exceedingly desirous that Mr. Barrack should receive the nomination.

We have had a slight personal acquaintance ith Mr. Barrack, and have known him for some time from reputation. Be it said in honor to him that he has always been an unyielding, consistent, conservative Democrat. He has never compromised or scrifteed the interest of his party. To der him the nomination is but a just reward

It is admitted by all who know him that he is in every respect well qualified to fulfill the dutier of the office properly. CUMBERLAND.

THE GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION.—The prin meetings held in the different counties of the State, and expressive of the direct and immediate will or opinion of the sovereigns themselves, have nearly all sent in their returns, and the indications are, that the sentiment of the larger portion of the State, is pretty equally divided be-tween the Hon. Beriah Magoffin, and the Hon. A. G. Talbott.—Elizabethtown Democrat.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on scrictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

FURNITURE DEALER,

THE RIVER commenced rising yesterday, with scant six feet "pass water" on the falls last evenng, and seven feet nine or ten inches water in the canal by the mark. This makes the actual depth of water in the canal a little less than nine feet.— During the previous 24 hours the river had risen four inches. The weather was very cold in the morning, and good heavy ice was made, but in the evening it had turned warmer and cloudy, indicating more rain or snow.

The winter, according to the many signs, is likely to prove a mild one. The muskrats have built their houses thin and high in the water, and the three first days of winter, December, were mild and rather pleasant, indicating that the three winter months will be equally pleasant, with but little ice.

Dr. Fitta's skill in Mechanical Dentistry can be seen at their office, specimens of which took the first Premium and Diploma at the United States Fair in 1857. Dr. Wilson has been treating aching teeth successfully for the last five yet'rs by destroying the nerve without pain, filling the fangs and crown with gold, rest-ring the tooth to its natural shape, and making it as useful as before decay. Do not have your teeth extracted until you are certain they cannot be saved.—More than fifty per cent. of the teeth usually extracted can be made useful through life. We are daily treating and filling teeth of this class that comes in to be extracted. In no case do we disfigure a tooth by filing to fill it, using other and better means than the indiscriminate use of the file. Any tooth can be filled with gold that is worthdilling at all. We use, when requested, a local anesthesia to prevent pain in extracting teeth. All operations warranted as represented, and terms as liberal as any good Dentist can afford.

Washington, December 9th, 1858.—House.—Mr. Chapman referred to the fact that two memorials had been sent to the House, asking the impeachment of Judge Watrous, of Texas, and proceeded to review the facts and testimony in the case, involving the charges that Watrous secretly engaged in land speculations, showing a degree of official misconduct which admits of no excuse, and a gross exercise of his judicial powers. Not only did he arrange to sit in cases covering his own private interests, but to remove others to New Orleans, to be placed beyond the reach of Texas jurors and litigants.

Mr. Chapman believed confidence in Watrous's administration had been shaken to the foundation, and Watrous away it to himself.

Mr. Tappan was opposed to the impeachment of Watrous. He asked the House to examine the evidence, and not to be diverted from a proper line of proceeding by outside pressure. On this evidence alone he wanted them to say whether Watrous was invescent or wills. Vatrous was innocent or guilty. The resolutions of the Legislature of Texas, in condemnation of his conduct, grew out of a decision touching the statute of limitation, and affecting the pockets of the people of that State, which decision was sus-tained by the Supreme Court of the United States. He said there was no evidence to show that Watrous contemplated setting as a judge in his own cause, and that, by the purchase of land, he lost none of the rights as a citizen of Texas. Washington, Dec. 9.—The selection of standing committees by the Senate was not made to-day, as was anticipated. Charles S. Jones, the Democratic caucus nominee for assistant doorkeeper of the Senate, was elected to-day by 31 votes. Twelve Republican
